Antonia Albano

Friday, February 14th 10:30 ~ noon

Q & A - Curious About All the Excitement of...
Geometries of Love ... birthing the new human & the next octave of love ?

10:30 - noon ~ Antonia Albano - Q & A about the amazing Geometries of Love ...sacred technologies for the next octave of love, the next octave of human. Walk a one-of-a-kind labyrinth floor walk which is a creation field. Ask Antonia questions about her journey into Expanded Realms of Love. Antonia has had a life-long fascination with both how the un-manifest is made manifest and how the un-manifest is integral to our existence and permeates all life with its intelligence. While on a modern day vision quest in 2004, Antonia began to draw shapes that have become the focus of her life. She'll explain how, that if one chooses to allow it, such forms can impact and shape our lives and all life as we know it, and how she discovered that with the shapes came a beautiful, gentle yet powerful and palpable energetic message as to their purpose. Over the next eight years, six more geometric shapes new to this earth plane presented themselves to Antonia. These shapes, with motion, color and sound, together form a family called the Geometries of Love...sacred technologies for the new millennium. Each is magnificent and important in its own right, but together they function synergistically as a potent generator that is The Unified Field System of Love, and create for our own experience what Antonia describes as both "the Next Octave of Love" and "the Next Octave of Human!" love donations printable event flyer

Antonia Albano - has facilitated workshops & seminars in expanding human consciousness since 1991. She is the founder of the World Love Project™, the annual Celebration of Love & the Healing Resonance Council™ Antonia was co-founder & Director of the California Institute for Mind-Body Awareness in Northern California where she had a private practice as an Integrative Therapist, Transformation Coach & Spiritual Mentor. From 2004 to present she has brought forth the new living geometric technology systems called the Geometries of Love...The Unified Field System of LOVE for this new millennium. In addition, to assist us in our Love Evolution, Antonia has been guided to a 'high tech' designed energy system suitable for the Next Octave of Human. Antonia resides in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia.

Devi Herrsche

Transcendental Love

... three true stories and their life changing lessons

Friday, February 14th 2020 2 pm

For twenty years, Devi Herrsche has been actively requesting, receiving, and interpreting lucid dreams that have healed, educated and inspired her. From her dreams she has learned how science and spirituality ultimately agree. To document both the process and product of dreamwork, Devi is writing an open-access, multimedia online book called Quadernity: Exploring the Essential Dynamism that Underlies All Relationships On Any Scale, from Quantum to Human to Cosmic. When readers use her Quadernity models as lenses through which to re-vision the issues of our day—from personal to planetary—they too will experience, as Devi has, that problems become easier to solve; perspectives broaden and soften; healing happens; creativity soars; and LOVE RULES. <https://quadernity.blog/>

The Extraordinary Gift of Forgiveness
... releasing the shackles that bind

Saturday, February 15th 10am

Every day Doris connects with clients worldwide who feel unable to move forward. As the founder of Angel Healing Touch and as a Guatemalan Shaman, born and raised in Guatemala City, Doris sees how these 'shackles' can not only keep us from moving forward in our lives, but take a toll, sometimes a very serious toll, on our bodies and our psyches. Sometimes these 'stuck' places come through our lineage and other times the situations are created in this current lifetime. Join us to experience Doris' love and honoring of our brilliant wholeness. Experience the freedom of release from the heaviness of blame and anger. The angels will be assisting everyone present to 'lighten their load of damaging burden' making room for wondrous new light to come in. Everyone present will be guided to reconnect to their radiant hearts and brilliance of Being by utilizing universal principles and tools to lead joyous, abundant and peaceful lives. Doris resides with her husband in Rhode Island. www.AngelHealingTime.com 401.569.2220 angelhealingtime@gmail.com

Lindy Felix

Saturday, February 15th 1:30pm

Journey Into Love ...relationship as path

“Mitakuye Oyasin” is a phrase from the Lakota language which translates to “all my relations”. After years of holding “ME” AND All My Relations, I came to a revelation that was very tangible: All My Relations includes Me and “I” include All My Relations. Let's explore together pathways of experiencing, tangibly, the feeling and the knowing that we are interconnected AND that we can call on the empowerment of realizing Oneness/Unity to give and receive blessings to each other, to places, all across the Net of Light.

Lindy Felix has been a Healing Artist for over 30 years - an explorer of the seen and the unseen worlds – probably lifetimes. She has studied shamantic healing and wisdom ways of many cultures: Andean, Norse, Celtic, Amazonian, Native American, and what is sometimes called Core Shamanism, those pathways that are common to most of our ancestors. Lindy is a graduate of Sandra Ingerman's Shamantic Teacher Training. Some of her other teachers include: Hank Wesselman, Tom Cowan, Betsy Bergstrom, The Four Winds and many others. Lindy has been journeying and guiding others for several decades.

Evolve Into Divine Love

How can we induce “extra-ordinary”, collective, PURE, Divine Love?

Saturday, February 15th 3pm

Lisa Jacenich will discuss a topic that has been fascinating her for years, “the transcendent experience”. What does the experience actually look like in the brain and heart? What does it feel like as we straddle the line between ego-lessness and being human in this fast-changing world? She will examine the energetic implications of each stage of consciousness as it relates to the ability to transcend. The session will include an experiential opportunity. Participants are requested to bring the following items: journal, pen, pillow, blanket and eye mask. www.ArtfulGifts.com

BOB SIMA & Shannon Plummer in Concert

Friday, February 14th 2020 7:00 pm

Bob Sima is a dynamic singer-songwriter, performer, storyteller, speaker, servant of humanity, workshop and retreat leader, meditation and breathwork facilitator, and creative collaborator. His mission statement clearly articulates his intentions for his music:

"I come with a crystal clear divine purpose. With utmost and sacred devotion, I encapsulate – in song – my interpretations of the ancient, timeless wisdom of the ascended masters and of the contemporary teachers I meet in this life. Each and every song I birth begins as my personal conversation with Source, delivered as life lessons of spiritual growth, transformation, and expansion of consciousness. I share this gift to soften the hardest of hearts, widen the narrowest of smiles, loosen the tightest of grips, lighten the heaviest of loads, and thin the thickest of walls of as many souls as I can possibly reach. All for the greater purpose of lifting as much light and consciousness into this world at this time in human evolution when it is so called to be done." As a songwriter, Bob Sima has won a laundry list of awards in multiple genres and music markets - yet his music is genre-less.

Whether singing together in a concert, facilitating a transformational workshop, sitting in ceremony with a retreat group or Shannon offering one-on-one healing/coaching, the soul-level experience is always delivered. The marriage of Bob and Shannon's gifts is undeniably powerful, unique, and potent for anyone on the journey of transformation. ! Celebration Of Love 2020!
the State of Grace Labyrinth Walk
Sunday, February 16 10am

Inspired by the family of 7 geometries called the Geometric Technologies of Love ...the Unified Field System of LOVE for the next octave of human, this modern day hilltop labyrinth has been a 13 year project of love. It covers approximately an acre of ground with a stunning 360 degree view of both the Blue Ridge Mountains, the Alleghenies & nearly 8 counties. Beautiful original sculptures throughout the interior draw visitors to stop, look, sense, sit, meditate, quietly commune.

Everything on Mt Grace has been meticulously been laid out to mathematical proportions incorporating the Golden Ratio in its interior design. In the laying out of this schematic, our painstaking attention to detail was rewarded with a minute 1/2 inch of discrepancy. No mean feat! The pavers were all handmade & counter sunk.

The center design is interwoven golden ratio infinities. This is not only a beautiful labyrinth in a gorgeous setting, it is a powerhouse of amazing energy. The two outer rings have crimson & saffron flags that fly 12 feet high on days of ceremony. Individuals & groups have felt drawn to visit the farm to walk the creative one-of-a-kind design. The walk to this hilltop is approximately 1/2 -3/4 miles on a old logging road.

Antonia Albano - has facilitated workshops & seminars in expanding human consciousness since 1991. She is the founder of the World Love Project™, the annual Celebration of Love, the Healing Resonance Council™ & the creator of the Grace Walk Labyrinth. From 2004 to present she has brought forth the new living geometric technology systems called the Geometric Technologies of Love...The Unified Field System of LOVE for the next octave of human.
