...birthing the extraordinary evolutionary human & the next octave of love

Infinite Love

Antonia Albano

Human DNA

Sacred Geometry • Golden Ratio • New 'high-tech' Human Energetic System • Conscious Evolution • Labyrinth Walk • Conscious Creation & MUCH MUCH MORE

Ever wonder why humanity spends their lives seeking love, writing & singing about love, creating "love bundles" called babies, crying for lost loves, dying of broken hearts, crying at beautiful music? The "original pain" is our separation from the Source of All Life. We spend the entirety of our lives seeking that love, in whatever form we perceive it to be. Unashamedly, we seek reunion with the BIG LOVE from whence we came.

It is time to consciously guide our inevitable evolution by aligning with those shapes, motions, colors & sounds that can guide our alignment with what we say we wish to create... that of higher evolved, more open heart-ed, kind & compassion beings. If you know yourself to be a visionary, and you 'know' that being in 'the center of opposites' is the space from which you can travel infinitely in & infinitely out, then you know the electrifying power of the Sacred Feminine & the Sacred Masculine in harmonic balance. From that center we can create a deeper connection with the Creator of all life everywhere. With that connection we have the ability to move into a place of a responsible & conscious co-creator.

Learn what creative magic and alchemy is in the Phi-Ratio (no mathematics or geometry background required!) & how simple alignment & focus with this equation of creation can change your life forever... this lifetime & those to come. Learn how this mathematical proportion can take you a 'step beyond' the ordinary into the extra-ordinary. Consciously re-create your human energetic system to open new horizons; walk a modern day labyrinth which is, in itself a creative field; receive the new energies in energetic exchanges with others; & immerse yourself in a sound bath, emanations of vibration from the Source of All Sound.

Gatherings flow intuitively as related to the persons present. Intentions are offered, the flow is creative & open. These involve sharings of Antonia's insights, some internal focus directions, outdoor walks, immersion into sound, audio/visual & much more...

Antonia Albano - has facilitated workshops & seminars in expanding human consciousness since 1991. She is the founder of the World Love Project, creator of The Grace Walk ...a golden living prayer labyrinth, founder of Virginia's annual Celebration of Love multi-day event & the Healing Resonance Council™. Antonia was co-founder & Managing Director of the California Institute for Mind-Body Awareness (CIMBA) in Northern California where she maintained a private practice as an Integrative Therapist, Transformation Coach & Spiritual Mentor. From 2004 to present she has brought forth the new living geometric technology systems called the Geometries of Love & The Unified Field System of LOVE for a more conscious evolutionary direction. In addition, to assist us in this evolution, Antonia has been privileged to guide the futuristic, new “high-tech” human energy system. Antonia resides with her husband on their 250 acre retreat in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia. ANTONIA ALBANO

Messenger for the Geometric Technologies of Love

Antonia has been facilitating workshops on the raising of human consciousness since early 1990s. She has had a life long fascination with both how the un-manifest is made manifest and how the un-manifest is integral to our existence on this planet permeating all life with it's intelligence. This has taken her through many interesting and diverse fields, most moving into the esoteric sciences and sacred geometry.

The two gifts that Antonia shares are the new Geometric Technologies of Love - the 'living, breathing, pulsating, infinite density of potential' geometries for our evolution into the Next Octave of Love plus the Next Step in Human Energy Evolution - a completely new energetic 'hardware' system for the evolving human body to facilitate our evolution into the Next Octave of Human.

Throughout the years Antonia has held the dream of a world of 'awakened hearts'. Founding the World Love Project, Virginia's multi-day Celebration of Love event, creating a one-of-a-kind 'modern day' hilltop labyrinth solely focused on the golden ratio and the Healing Resonance Council are some ways she has envisioned making a difference.

Antonia has been involved for over three decades with the California based Alohem Center for Transformational Studies, co-founded the California Institute for Mind-Body Awareness, a holistic institute north of San Francisco and had a private practice as a Transformation Coach and Spiritual Mentor. Currently Heartstone Country Retreat, the 250 acre retreat center, in the southern end of the Shenandoah Valley that Antonia & her husband Barney have created & operate, serves as the Global Headquarters for the World Love Project. Antonia continues to explore esoteric studies, expanding her inner vision and dissolving illusions.
